The Dangerous Lies Of TB Joshua, By Ebenezer Obadare

Editor's note: Ebenezer Obadare, the Naij.com columnist, has a lot of questions for Pastor T.B. Joshua regarding the September 2014 SCOAN guesthouse collapse and the subsequent attempts of the mega-popular religious leader to divert attention from and conceal details of the tragedy. How come in Nigeria we are so easily distracted in everything church-related?

By now, you must have come across the totally unexpected news of the naming of the leader of The Synagogue, Church of All Nations (SCOAN), Pastor Temitope Balogun Joshua, as the first-of-its-kind 2015 Yoruba Man of the Year. Egbe Omo Oodua Parapo, the organization which has adjudged Pastor Joshua worthy of this special distinction, assures us it is “a coalition of 35 pan-Yoruba groups drawn from across the world,” and that the decision to bestow the special honor on Pastor Joshua was arrived at after a careful screening “of over 500 nominees” by its planning committee, following its annual conference at an unnamed venue in the United States.

If you are at a loss as to the need for a special award for a Yoruba man, or for that matter the fact that before now, you knew nothing about either the Egbe Omo Oodua Parapo, or Dr. Akinwale Adewunmi, the purported signatory to its release, you are not alone. And you need not worry, because you are not missing anything.

This is all you need to know: the Egbe, the planning committee, and the alleged Dr. Adewunmi are, in all probability, the same person — yes, you guessed right, T.B.

Joshua himself; and if you have been debating whether or not Pastor Joshua is worthy of such an award, then, sadly, you have fallen for his gimmick, which is to deflect attention away from his ongoing legal troubles with the Lagos state government. Mr. Oyetade Komolafe, the latter's coroner, has recommended Joshua's prosecution for criminal negligence after a collapsed guest house within his Ikotun-Egbe church left 116 people dead on September 12, 2014. Ever since, Pastor Joshua has been doing his utmost both to discredit the coroner's report and ultimately derail the legal process. This totally mysterious award is his latest gamble.

In any other society in which certain values are held sacrosanct, Pastor Joshua would be by now cooling his feet behind bars, and the fact that he is still allowed to enjoy his freedom, which he then uses to pervert the course of justice, tells you everything you need to know about the state of affairs in our country.

For our own education, it is important to recall some of the things (at least the ones we know publicly) that Pastor Joshua has done till date to hide the truth of what happened within his church premises on that fateful Friday, and mislead the Nigerian public.

First, for the first three days after the incident, he barred officials of the National Emergency Management Authority (NEMA) from entering the site to gather evidence and help survivors.

Second, for several weeks after, until the Lagos state bowed to public pressure to act, he promoted the ludicrous lie that an unknown small plane was the cause of the guest house's collapse.

Third, he was caught on tape trying to pay journalists N50,000 each as inducement to publish falsehood about the incident. The authenticity of that tape has never been denied.

Fourth, he tried to financially induce family members of the estimated 85 South African victims of the collapse. In December last year, he had them flown into Lagos with a promise to "assist them with various household expenses".

Fifth, and in explicit homage to some of the ignoble holdovers from our recent military past, Mr Joshua has created faux civic associations to champion his cause. Two such associations are the Oodua Nationalist Coalition and the Nigerian Human Rights Community, the latter ostensibly "a coalition of 135 NGOs and CBOs". On Sunday July 19 2015, both published full-page advertisements in Sunday Sun (page 67) and The Punch (page 45) respectively, each seeking to absolve Pastor Joshua of any guilt for the collapsed building. The statement attributed to the Nigerian Human Rights Community, and signed by one Dr. Anselm Oboku, even had the chutzpah to suggest that the building collapse might have been due to "a revenge attack by terrorists".

Egbe Omo Oodua Parapo is the third known association that Pastor Joshua has manufactured.

In short, Pastor Joshua has spent a lot of money trying to get away with plain murder. He has hustled, blustered, and bamboozled. He has used every trick in the book and he has, up till now, failed. But there is no telling what he might do next, especially if the justice system stands its ground and he gets more desperate.

As we await his next maneuver, it is critical that we are mindful of the reason why fraudsters like Pastor T.B. Joshua tend to flourish in a clime like ours, and what it is that gives his ilk their tenacity. As I have explained at length elsewhere, the T.B. Joshuas of this world are enabled by a potent mix of popular gullibility and economic vulnerability, and as the horizon continues to darken on the economic front, ordinary Nigerians increasingly put their trust in the hands of social agents who provide irrational explanations for, and solutions to, our self-inflicted crisis.

For T.B. Joshua not to get away with murder, we must remain vigilant. Some will say that even if he gets away with it, he won't be the first. It's true. But nothing stops us from using this particular case to chart a new direction in our social life. What does it say about us as a nation if a man gets to lie and cheat his way out of the murder of 116 people?

Shemstine thanks for your contribution. I have searched the Kansas University portal and seen that Ebenezer is actually an Associate Professor of Sociology. I also found him on face book initiating alot of calamitous arguements against especially Nigeria in a blog. Among such debates he has initiated is the stand of some Nigerians against gay marriage, gay rights and our opinion not to accept the position of liberalisation of the the act. He even tried calling some of the opinions made by very talented columnist foolish. From my observation his assessment of our efforts at finding a suitable ... See More

Is this man truly a prof? I doubt it much! And if he is, he really need deliverance to succeed in his field and in this world. I don't think you know what you are saying, why don't you find a better thing to write about, and when you don't know much about a thing, its better you just keep mute about it than to be embarrassing yourself this way and devaluing the most eyed title (professor) you calls yourself. Am sure you are truly paid to do this, or you are looking for cheap popularity. My advise to you is, if Kansas is not good enough, come back to Nigeria and stop disappointing us.

Thanks to you all good people of Nigeria who stood up to the truth and spoke your minds out to Ebenezer Obadara. If really this man is a professor, then i am highly disappointed. Prof. I am highly disappointed in you. How dare you raise your voice against God's elect moreso in total ignorance. Ordinarily i donnot intend to debate your myopic views with you, however i want to lend my voice to the contributions of good friends our country who have already put you in your right place. Obadare you are a stupid professor. Your publication of hate make no sense to real sons and daughters of Africa, we are proud of Prophet TB Joshua. We will continue to celebrate the gift of God in our continent. Jesus Christ the savior was hated by his people because of the same ignorance of spiritual things.As at today Christianity is among the smallest religion in Isreal and I want you to check on that and give reason why is that way if it is different from what you are doing now.

You are a failure. Professor indeed! How dare you. What are you doing in the US? Prophet T.B Joshua is a carrier of God grace and hence a global man of God who is doing good wherever he goes. Nobody rejoices over the death of his fellow man let alone that tragic collapsed building incident that killed those that came to worship God. I can tell you they are resting in the blossom of our Lord. Keep your concern

Accident can happen anywhere, you also need to go and do thorough investigation of Nigerians that died in Saudi stampede and those that die in south africa during xenophobia and hold their presidents responsible if you really want to fight for the dead. Accidents that result in mass death have been happening nobody has been jailed because it is accident. Toluwalase if your car involve in accident that cause death of people are you supposed to be killed or jailed?

Diaso Kennedy Igbo, are u saying that if d national stadium collapsed on spectators, d president of d country or sport minister should b held responsible instead of d engineer or architect who handled d job? must d owner of a building know anything about building before he contract a person to build for him? if ur answer is no, why must TB Joshua knw what d contractor supposed to do? TB Joshua can only b queried if he refuses to produce d engineer or contractor who handled d job. he was only relying on his professional advice to build.

I have never deigned to post a retort to garbage from depraved minds like this author. And now as I am posting it, i asked myself, what is the goal? So i look in the Holy Book.

Let us read what the Holy Bible says about his ilk;

Romans 14:10-12

Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God; for it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God." So then each of us will give an account of himself to God.

Tell me Elijah is this author part of these arrangement he claimed to know much about or an investigative journalist? What informed his publication? Accident can happen anywhere. You that are pressing that the prophet should be jailed, do you know if that happen is going to be a judicial precedence that can be argued for any cases of accident that result into death? Nobody knows what may happen tomorrow in whatever organization you claimed to belong to . If a accident that result in death occurs, the same precedent can be invoked because death is death either one person is involved or many. You not going to have your people in power always.

There is nothing new here. A lot of speculation, hearsay, and conjecture. The professor has been on the prosecution for this case for some time. See <http://allafrica.com/stories/201409280011.html>. He was one of five American based (African professors) who called for the immediate arrest of TB Joshua immediately after the tragedy. Now he is calling the tragedy "murder." The dictionary defines murder as "the unlawful premeditated killing of one human being by another." This goes far beyond the findings of the coroner's inquiry. This piece of writing is not worthy of the academic standing of the author. Dr Obadare should desist from emotive arguments that tarnish his academic standing.
